

Visit Historic Granville, Tennessee
for the

2017 Genealogy Festival And Family Reunion

April 8, 2017

Sponsored by Granville Museum, Inc.
126 Clover Street
Granville, Tennessee

Grand Opening of Remembering 1940's in Granville - Granville Museum special exhibit "Memories of the 1940's".

An event for everyone: genealogists, history buffs and those who want to learn about genealogical research.

Schedule

Saturday, April 8, 2017

9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

- Grand Opening of Tennessee State Museum Traveling Exhibit "The Slaves & Slave Holders of Wessyngton Plantation" Exhibit in Granville thru June 3, 2017
- 2017 Festival Honors the "Black Families of Granville and the Ragland Family"
- Genealogy Sharing at Surname Booths- Exhibition Center-Museum-Church
- Speakers on Genealogy and the History of the Upper Cumberland
- Organizational Booths
- 9th Anniversary of Sutton General Store
- Craftsmen at Pioneer Village, Pioneer Cooking
- How to do Genealogy Research at the Granville Museum – Ron Dishman
- Genealogy Research Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints- Granville Museum

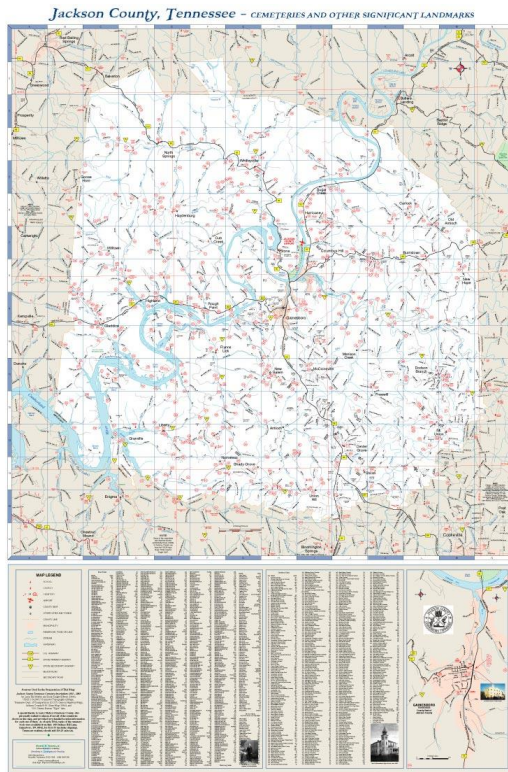

- 10:00AM – 3:00PM - Up to 1950 Antique Car Show
- 11:00 PM- 2:00 PM - Lunch Served at Sutton General Store
- 11:00 AM – 2:00 PM - Book Signing Middle TN Authors-Museum
- 11:00 – "Freedom Belles, World War II Musical Show: I'll Be Seeing You" – across from Granville Museum
- 12:00 – "Tennessee Maneuvers & World War II Re-enactments" – across from Granville Museum
- 12:00 - 5:00 - Tours 1880 Sutton Home featuring "Maneuvers: They came as Strangers and Left as Friends"
- 12:00 – 3:00 - Lynn Beal Jazz Band Performing at Pruett Stage
- 12:00 PM – 5:00 PM
Upper Cumberland Wine Festival – 8 Wineries of Upper Cumberland Participating – Wine Tasting- Wine for Sale
- 12:30 – Trinity Baptist Church Choir-across from Granville Museum
- 1:30 Tennessee Maneuvers & World War II Re- enactments"- across from Granville Museum
- 2:00 - "Freedom Belles, World War II Musical Show: I'll Be Seeing You"-across from Museum
- 3:00PM - Up to 1950 Antique Car Parade
- 5:00PM & 6:30PM - Dinner at the Sutton Store by Reservation (931-653-4151)
- 6:00PM – 8:00PM - 9th Anniversary of Sutton Ole Time Music Hour Sutton Ole Time Music Hour "John Tomlin & Company"

Research Opportunity

Available in the Granville Museum

Granville cemetery information will provide visitors a chance to learn about cemeteries around Granville and search for their ancestors.

A cemetery map of Jackson County and the Jackson County Cemetery Inscriptions - 1801-2003 book by Larry Mabry and Reda Bilbery will also be available.

Speaker Schedule

Speakers on a variety of topics interesting to genealogists, researchers and history buffs will be presented at the Granville United Methodist Church.

9:30AM

“How to Access the Largest Genealogy Library in the World” – Joellan Hall

10:00AM – 10:45AM

“Family Connections: Finding Missing Family thru DNA” – Edie Williams & Linda Coffey

11:00AM – 11:45AM “The Washington’s of Wessyngton Plantation”- John F. Baker Jr. Author

11:45-12:15 – “Slavery in Tennessee” Rob DeHart- TN State Museum

12:15AM – 1:00PM

Break for Lunch, Visit Booths

1:00PM – 1:45PM “Early Ragland’s in Jackson County” – Robert Brown

2:00 – 2:45 PM – Region, Race and Memory: Inheriting the Civil War Conversation – Michael Bertrand

3:00 PM – Post Mortem and Funeral Photography: Reading, Researching & Studying Images of Death” – Megan M. Atkinson- University Archivist-TN Tech University

More information will be available on the internet at <http://granvilletn.com> as it is available.

Get Involved!

Many visitors come to the Granville Museum seeking genealogical information about their ancestors. You can help and get reacquainted by sharing your genealogical research.

Reserve a Surname Booth where you can share your research with others on April 9th. Use the reservation form on this brochure or use the online form at <http://granvilletn.com>.

Information is also available on the website to help you plan your booth.

Plan your family reunion picnic. Talk to your family and plan your family reunion on April 9th.

Use the attached form or the online form at <http://granvilletn.com> to help us accommodate your group. Let us know if your family will be bringing covered dishes or purchasing the great meal from the caterer. A count will insure that we can accommodate your group.

Register Now - Surname Booths-Located inside Granville Exhibition Center & Granville United Methodist Church

Genealogy Festival Reservation – Please send to Granville Museum, P Box 26, Granville TN 38564

Name _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Yes, Reserve a Surname Booth for me at the Genealogy Festival
Surnames in my genealogy: _____

Yes, my family is interested in doing a Family Reunion Picnic.

Estimated total attendance: _____ Estimated number purchasing food: _____